

Ole Lynggaard Copenhagen: A Place for Dreams

27 - 29 August 2026

62 South Glenwood Street Jackson, Wyoming 83001

Since 1963, Ole Lynggaard Copenhagen has created fine jewelry inspired by nature. From high-end special pieces to exclusive fine jewelry collections intertwining playfulness and timeless elegance. Ole Lynggaard Copenhagen creates everlasting investment pieces, tributing the wonders of nature and the poetry of life. It all begins in the creative corners of the designers' minds. Ideas are brought to life as playful drawings and experimental sculptures, as Ole and Charlotte Lynggaard and Charlotte's daughter Sofia Lynggaard Normann bring old traditions and new techniques together. Every piece of fine jewelry is handcrafted with utmost precision and dedication. From glittering engagement rings and personalized wedding bands to precious creations to pass on from generation to generation. For decades, the company has also been Purveyor to the Royal Danish Court.

The jewelry is handcrafted from 18 karat gold and other precious metals – and often topped off with brilliant-cut diamonds and rare gemstones. In the various collections you will find a playful variety of designs for both him and her, as well as a wide wedding- and engagement assortment that fits different styles & personalities.

The heart of Ole Lynggaard Copenhagen is a passionate family devoted to creativity, craftsmanship – and each other. The company was founded in 1963 by goldsmith and fine jewelry designer Ole Lynggaard. Today, the company is driven by the Lynggaard family. Ole Lynggaard's daughter, Charlotte Lynggaard, is Designer and Creative Director. His son, Søren Lynggaard, is CEO. Together they carry on the Danish design traditions joined by the third Lynggaard generation.

No. 62 is a curated selection of significant jewelry designers of our time. Nestled within Maya Frodeman Gallery, a contemporary art gallery in downtown Jackson Hole, Wyoming, No. 62 showcases award-winning designers from around the globe, such as Nicholas Varney, Judy Geib, Silvia Furmanovich, Bibi van der Velden and Fernando Jorge, amongst others.

Elevating the preconceptions of fine jewelry, No. 62 is a boutique that allows the viewer to discover new modes of personal expression. An experience all its own, No. 62 ensures each guest who visits the space leaves with an enduring sense of how art in the form of jewelry can enrich our day-to-day lives. It is this power that has inspired No. 62 to build a home for artists where their work is shown in an elevated environment aimed at connecting you with something deeper.
